

Mrs. Puff

I'm Rebecca, and I'm in Mrs.
Puff's 3rd grade class.

Today is a special day
because we have a new student named, Sally!
Mrs. Puff told me I could show her around and help her out so I'm SUPER excited!

“Class, may I get your attention, please? This is our new student, Sally and I expect all of you to show her just how nice and fun our class is.”

“Sally, this is Rebecca and she will show you around and help you out this year.”

“Hi! I’m Rebecca! We are going to be great friends I just know it!”

I started to ask her all sorts of questions but Sally doesn't talk a lot. She usually only says, "yes or no."

But she's a great listener when I talk to her and I talk a lot!

Sally sometimes does this cool thing with her hands called, sign language.

And she's teaching me!

Sally uses this really cool talking board. It has pictures of everything and when she pushes one, it talks for her!

Sally doesn't like to talk out loud in front of everyone else. I think she's embarrassed by her voice but I don't think it's bad!

But I like to talk so I'll talk for both of us.

Mrs. Puff pulls Sally aside sometimes and holds up pictures for her to point at. I think it's easier for them to talk like that since Sally doesn't talk a lot.

Sally also get's to keep a white board in her desk so she can write what she wants to say if it's not on her talking board.

I wish I got one of those but I think she needs it and I don't.

Sally doesn't really like to talk to anyone else but me so I think we are going to become best friends!
