

Sometimes I...

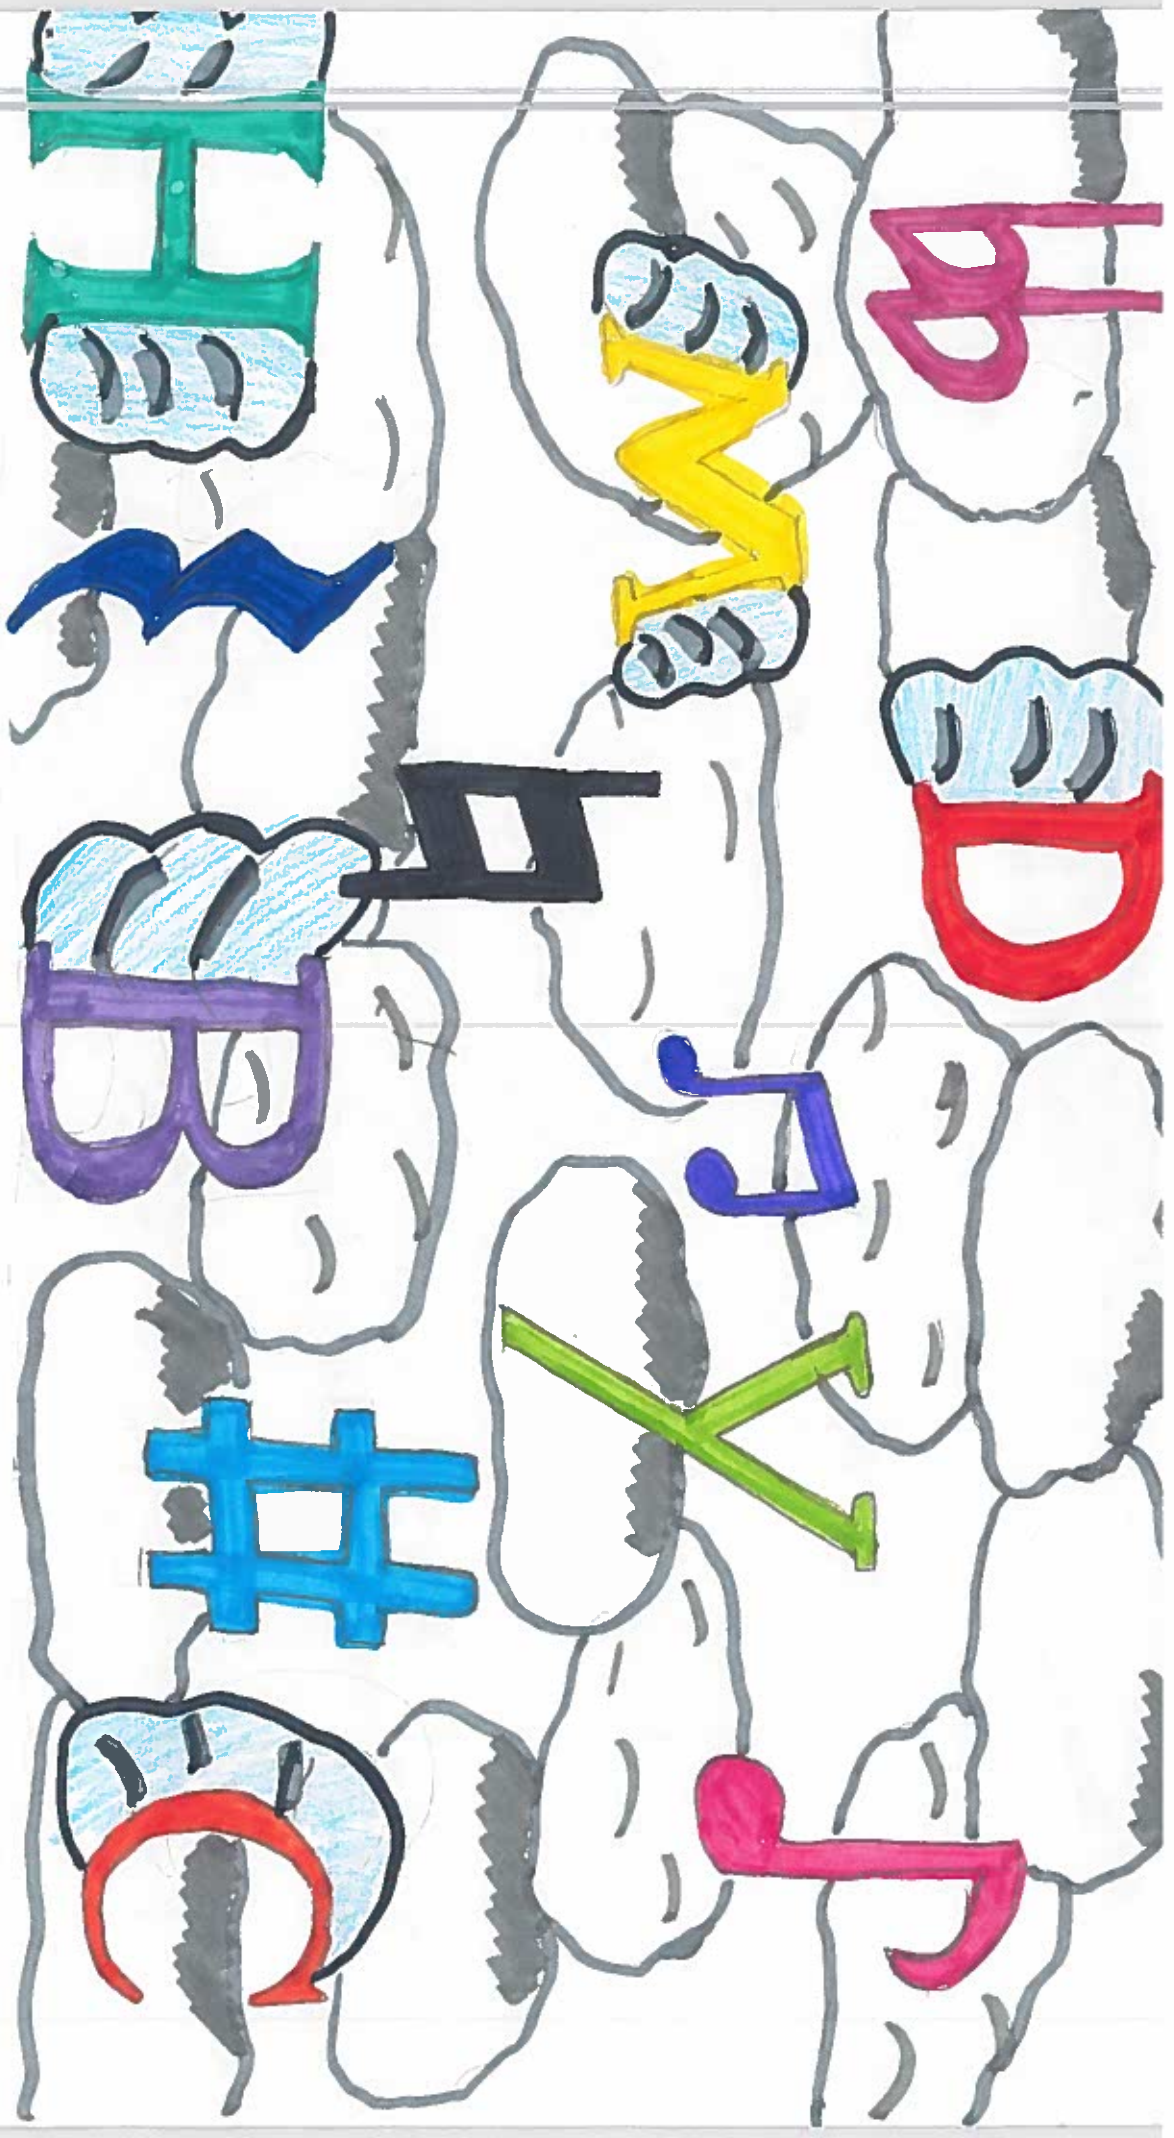

By Joshua Herrera, Joaquin Sanchez,
& Alyssa Minjares

Sometimes I struggle to write with my hands.

By Kylie Johnson

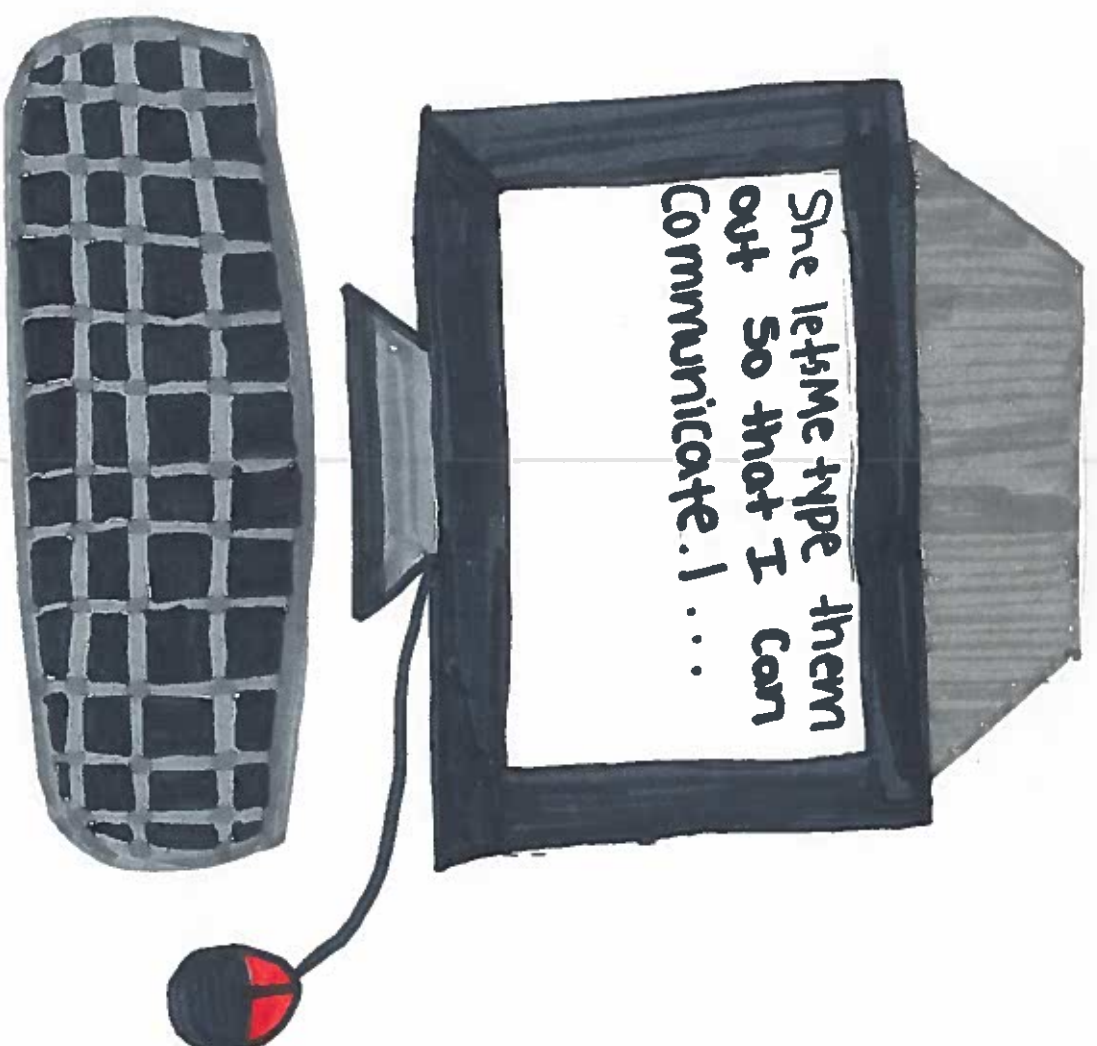

The letters flit and fly like notes from a marching band.

Mia Contreras

My teacher helps me to keep my letters straight.

By: Jenna Bird
and RJ Killion

BY: EH PawPaw

She lets me type them out so that I can communicate.

Sometimes I struggle to get my words out right.

Sybil - Kimmberly

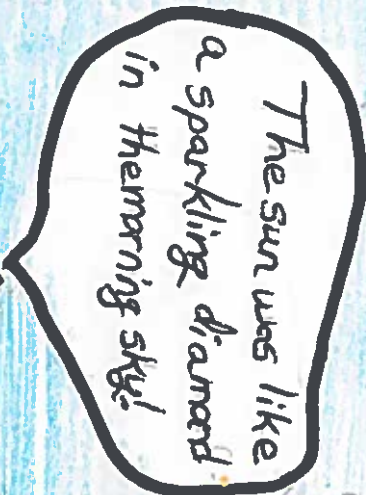

I stutter and stammer like I'm in a huge bullfight.

By: Xander W.

By:
Alyssa
Minjarres

My reading group helps me say what I need to say.

When working with my friends, my speech is like night and day.

By: Tenniel
and Kaiy
Cristendon

THESIS?

Name: McKenzie Date: 04/16/16

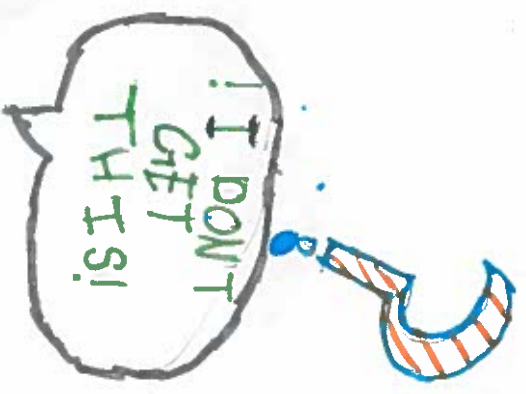

Directions- Find which literary device relates the sentence.

1.) A penny saved is a penny earned.
LD- _____

2.) His psychedelic shirt was really pretty ugly.
LD- _____

3.) The fire truck is a blaze.
LD- _____

4.) Weird weather waited in the wind.
LD- _____

! I DONT GET THIS!

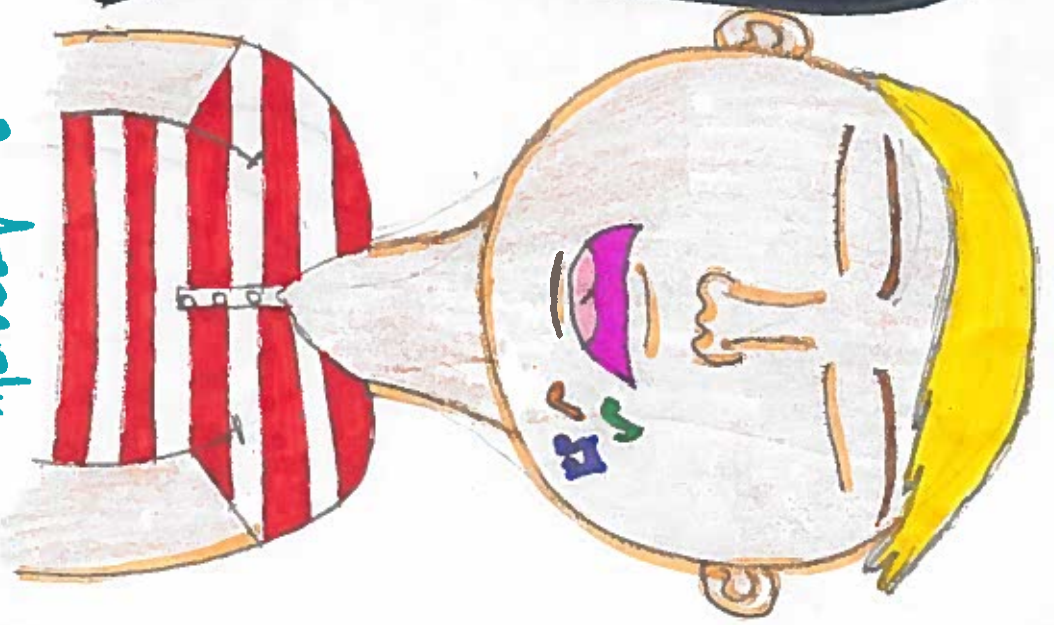

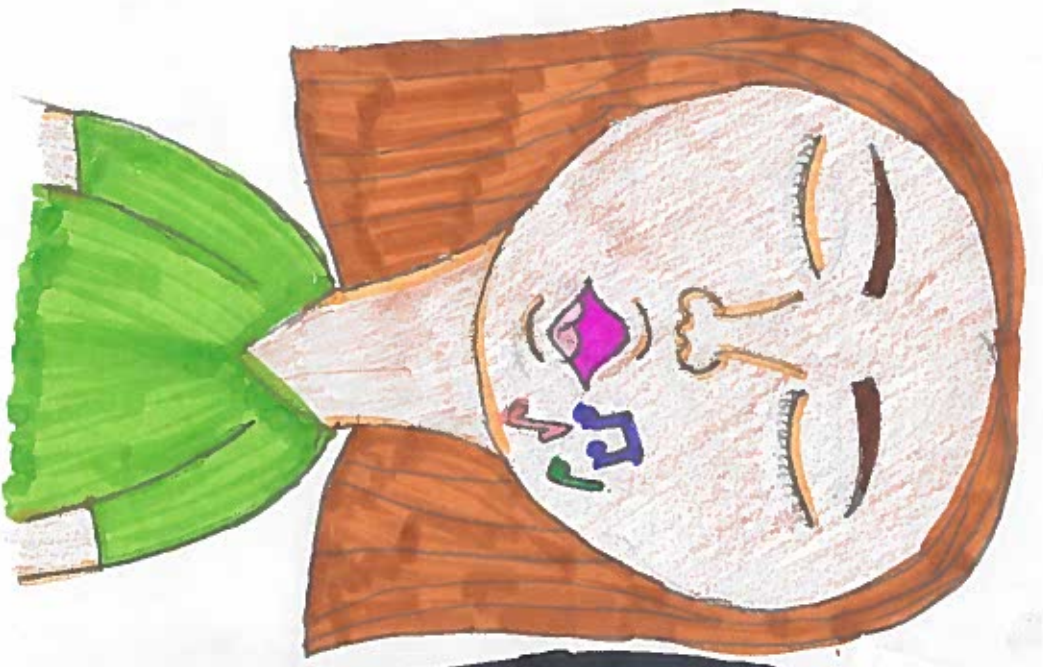

Sometimes I struggle remembering what I've learned in class.

By- Marisa Hernandez

My brain gets all foggy like an old looking glass.

By:
Kennedi
Dutcher

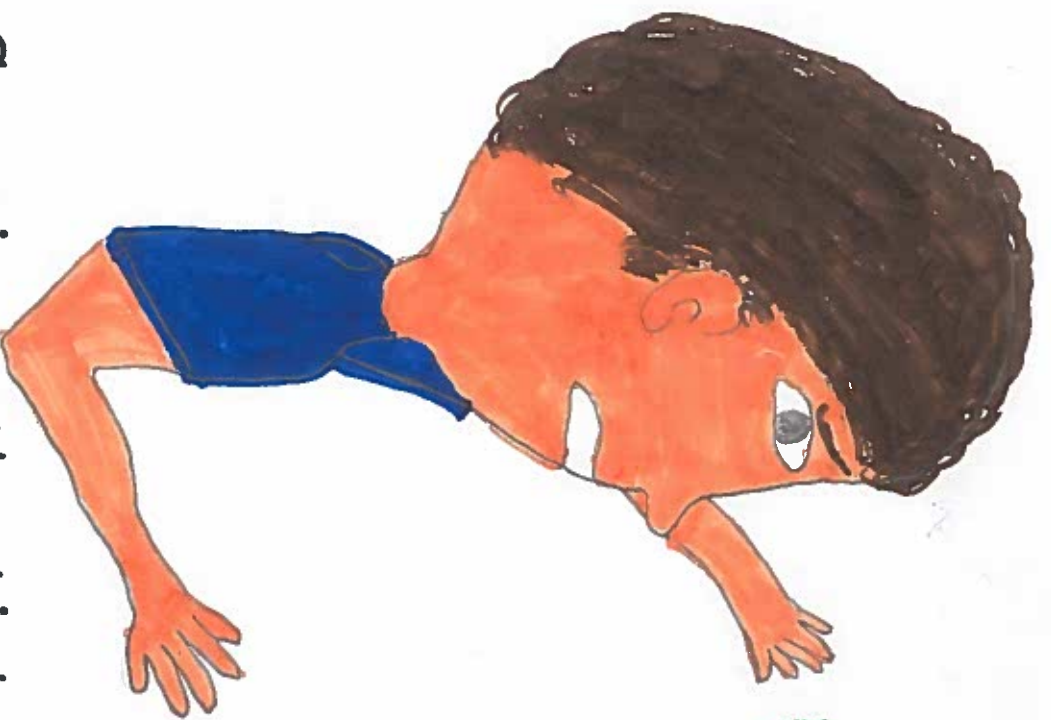

By Anacely
Henriquez

My classmates help me by singing clever tunes.

We clap and we dance like a bunch of big baboons.

Big-Moya Tel i
Savannah Lane

School

Sometimes school is hard for me. It's like a push and a shove,

By: Ty Kolar

but it is so much easier when surrounded by those I love.

By:
Anni Resendi